I. Introduction

1.1 Background

1.1.1 Over the years, the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government (“Government”) has been promoting the Basic Law through different channels including publicity programmes, school education , training for civil servants, etc. To fully leverage the extensive publicity network of non-government organisations, the Constitutional and Mainland Affairs Bureau (“CMAB”) has been providing sponsorship to various non-government organisations in the community for organising Basic Law promotional projects, and will continue with the promotional efforts.

1.2 Objective of the Scheme

1.2.1 The Basic Law Promotion Activity Sponsorship Scheme and Basic Law Promotion Research Sponsorship Scheme (“Sponsorship Scheme”) aims to promote the Basic Law among different sectors of the community and encourage different groups or organisations to conduct research on ways to further enhance the promotion of the Basic Law, with a view to enhancing public understanding on and support for the “One Country, Two Systems” principle and the Basic Law.

II. Application

2.1 Eligibility

If the successful applicant fails to complete the project by the relevant due date, CMAB may cease to provide any further funding support and require the successful applicant to immediately repay all or any funds already provided to it unless prior consent is sought from CMAB in writing to exercise its discretion to extend the completion date.
